

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Circuit Judge Marshall P. Young has served the National College of Juvenile and Family Law as an active faculty member for over fifteen years, teaching numerous courses on Juvenile and Family Law; and,

WHEREAS, Judge Young taught for eleven years at the National Judicial College; and,

WHEREAS, Judge Young has made many training contributions at the state level, including teaching at over two hundred state judicial training sessions; overseeing the overall training efforts of the National College of Juvenile and Family Law, which trained over thirteen thousand judges and personnel; participating in the South Dakota Judicial Training for the past five years; and participating in the South Dakota Continuing Legal Education conducting Bar Seminars in 1968, 1982, 1983 and 1985; and,

WHEREAS, Judge Young has served on the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges; and,

WHEREAS, He was president of the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges from 1986-1987; was chairman of the National Advisory Committee, National Assessment of Juvenile Delinquency Prevention, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.; was a member of the National Advisory Committee of Serious Crimes and Violent Juvenile Offenders, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.; and a member of the Governor's Task Force for Establishing Criminal Justice Standards and Goals; and,

WHEREAS, Judge Young served as the South Dakota Judges and Justices Association's Vice President in 1980 and President in 1981; served as the District County and Municipal Judges Association's Vice President in 1969 and President in 1971; served on the Judicial Qualifications Commission for the State of South Dakota; served as Chairman of the Publication Policy Board and the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges; conducted a radio program called "You and the Courts" on a local radio station; created a Victim/Witness assistance program which was one of the first in the nation starting in the early 1970s; was a member of NCJFCJ Permanency Planning for Children Advisory Committee; contributed to numerous publications, including Making Reasonable Efforts: Steps for Keeping Families Together; participated in developing the divorce mediation program in Seventh Circuit; developed the CASA program in Seventh Circuit; was primarily responsible for drafting the South Dakota code on children; was the foremost authority on children and the judicial system in South Dakota; developed children-in-placement reviews; and, has provided training to Court Services Officers, Department of Social Services' workers and judges on children issues;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 21, 1988, as in South Dakota.

MARSHALL P. YOUNG DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

_____
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltine
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE